TEXAS was a perfect jam at the Catholic fair at the tabernacle last night, and money flowed in generously. The Hibsonian band enlivened the occasion with music. There will be interesting times to-night.

The male population of Mt. Zion was completely fagged out yesterday morning after battling courageously with the fire for over an hour. It was lucky for Mr. Hockaday that one of the force pumps manufactured by the Niagara Company of this city, was in the town, or his hotel might have been consumed. The pump saved the hotel.

MAON CO. CIRCUIT COURT.

May Term, A. D. 1892. Judge Smith Presiding.

THURSDAY, JUNE 8.

Court convened at 8:30 a. m.

CHANCERY DOCKET.

Edward Goff, a minor, etc., vs. James W. Goff et al; chancery. Motion allowed to strike out answer from the files.

PEOPLE'S DOCKET.

The People vs. James W. Jones; keeping open tipping house. Defendant arraigned and pleaded guilty to 1st and 2d counts; nolle entered as to all other counts. Defendant fined $20 and costs on each count.

Same vs. Same; selling liquor to minor. Nolle entered.

The People vs. James Smith; disturbing a religious meeting. Defendant arraigned, pleaded guilty, and fined $20 and costs on each count.

ESCAPED THE PEN.

Lizzie Barton, who was indicted for the crime of grand larceny in stealing about $40 worth of wearing apparel from Sallie Goodpasture and Nellie Rockwell at the Commercial Hotel, by agreement was permitted to plead guilty to petit larceny, and the trial by jury on the charge of grand larceny was dispensed with. The noted female was recommitted to the custody of the sheriff. She will give a jail sentence and thus escape imprisonment in the penitentiary. The young ladies named have recovered their property, and are happy: ditto Lizzie.

The People vs. Patrick Beardon; malicious mischief. Verdict guilty on first count as charged in the indictment. Sentence reserved.

The People vs. Edward Blair; malicious mischief; nolle entered.

The People vs. Benjamin Watkins; larceny. Defendant pleaded guilty to first count. Defendant sentenced to serve three years at hard labor in the penitentiary.

THE HARD BEGONY CASE.

The case of the People against Alvah Bird, charged with bigamy, was called up for trial this morning. The following jury was selected: J. W. Weigand, H. W. C. Enright, George Neibinger, Frank Smith, Robert Ferguson, J. N. Lile, Geo. Martin, E. C. Houchens and J. C. Stephens. The People are represented by Mr. John H. Hoffman, J. E. Priest, W. C. Enright, George Neibinger, Frank Smith, Robert Ferguson, J. N. Lile, Geo. Martin, E. C. Houchens and J. C. Stephens. The defendant is represented by Mr. John H. Hoffman, J. E. Priest, W. C. Enright, George Neibinger, Frank Smith, Robert Ferguson, J. N. Lile, Geo. Martin, E. C. Houchens and J. C. Stephens. It is alleged that Bird, the defendant, having a wife in Macoupin county, whose maiden name was Martha Logston, left that section of the state with his second wife, Ann Crawford, whom he married in the city of Lincoln, Ill., last fall. The couple then came to Deatur, and while here Bird was arrested on complaint of Mr. Logston, a brother of Bird's alleged first wife. Bird was placed in the county jail, and has been in prison since the day of his arrest. Mr. Logston is in attendance at court, as are also Mrs. Crawford Bird and her mother.

DR. C. F. DEMSEY.

This well known physician, who has practiced medicine in Macon county continuously since 1867, and has lived with his family at Warrensburg, has associated himself with Dr. L. W. Carter in the drug business at No. 1026 North Adams street, Peoria, Ill., where he will also practice his profession. The departure of Doctor Demsey has been heretofore noted in these columns. We are sorry that he has left the county. He is a genial, whole-souled gentleman—a man of pleasing address and cordial manners, whom it is always a pleasure to meet. The doctor fitted himself as a young physician in the office of Dr. Trowbridge, late U. S. consul at Vera Cruz, and Dr. W. J. Cheuoweth, who were associated here in business about 20 years ago. The doctor served his country gallantly during the late war, and for a long time was a prisoner in foul Andersonville. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Demsey to the people of Peoria as an honorable gentleman and a physician of years of valuable experience.

THE Deatur Rescues hose running team will leave for Muscatine, Iowa, on Tuesday next, over the Peoria, Deatur & Evansville. There will be about 23 members of the company in the crew. They go to Muscatine to join in the sweepstakes race on Friday, June 16th and in the hub-and-hub contest with the Muscatine Rescues on Saturday, June 17th. The Deatur boys hope to bring home about $1200 in cash prizes with all the special premiums attached. The Rescues, as usual, will have a representative at this state tournament, who will send us all important news by telegraph as soon as the official figures as to time are announced.

Children's Day.

Methodist Discipline. It is recommended that the second Sunday in June be everywhere observed as "Children's Day," and that wherever practical a collection be taken in aid of the "Sunday School Fund" of the Board of Education.

In compliance with the above "Children's Day" will be observed at Stapp's Chapel next Sabbath. The services promise to be unusually interesting. The church will be handsomely decorated with flowers, evergreens, singing birds, etc. The morning sermon, by the pastor, will be addressed particularly to the young. Sunday School at 2 p. m. In the evening there will be a children's service, consisting of songs, recitations and dialogues. All are cordially invited.

"J. N." Not Urging.

"J. N." says: "The reaction in favor of truth against prejudice must come slowly and gradually. This announcing and postponing from time to time divides the veil. Possibly the kind people of Deatur may be ready by the 21st, but I think they may need longer time in this pleasant little city before they can assemble to hear truths which resist the general ideas of the age." "J. N." appears in Lincoln June 20.

CANDIDATES for county offices are going about greeting their friends very cordially. Snooks says our retiring friend, Hon. S. S. Jack, desires to be returned to the legislature by the democrats of the district. He is said to be setting pins pretty deep.

TOBEY-KAYLOR.

Hearts and Hands Joined Together in Wheatland Township.

MARRIED—At the residence of Henry Kaylor, in Wheatland township, by Rev. D. C. May, of Macon, on Wednesday, June 7th, at 10 o'clock, m. W. W. TOBEY, of Macon, and MRS. KAYLOR.

The day being a beautiful one, many friends of the contracting parties were present, as a glance at the table loaded with costly and beautiful gifts would indicate, as also the many times friend Kaylor's table, covered with everything man or woman would wish to eat, was surrounded. Before half the company had visited the dinner table the bride and groom took their departure for the depot to take the train for St. Louis. The following is a list of the gifts, with one or two exceptions the donors being present: $200 in gold, father of bride; fine sewing machine, father and mother of bride; easy chair, Alice and Sammie Kaylor; mother of groom; set silver knives, Dr. S. R. May, Dalton City; silver cake stand, Mrs. and Miss Mollie Hamilton; glass set and napkins, Mr. and Mrs. H. Kesteven; Macon; set silver knives, James Sturgis and sister; silver butter dish, Oliver and Rhoda Scott; silver bouquet holder, Chas. and Ida Failing; silver pickle caster, H. F. May, Dodge City, Kansas; set of silver knives and spoons, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Hight; silver casket, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Montgomery; pair of beautiful vases, Chas. and Tilla Lowery; silver cake stand, J. N. Donahue; silver better dish, Mrs. Smith; silver silver pickle caster, Ed. and Mattie Cochran; silver spoon holder, Karl Hoover; glass and silver cake stand, Mrs. and Mr. Simpson; glass cake stand, Carrie L. Gardner; silver butter dish, J. N. Donahue; silver set, butter knife, salt spoon and pickle fork, from "the" pair of vases and glass pickle dish, Frank H. and Mrs. May; silver sugar spoon, Karl Hight; silver spoon holder, Donna H. Patterson; silver sugar spoon, Ella Dawson; beautiful music case, Sammie and Alice Kaylor; half dozen linen napkins, Mr. and Mrs. John Bohrer; tidy, Annie Moffett; stand cover, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hemphill; silk pin cushion, Grandma Hemphill; pair linen towels and bed cover, Mr. and Mrs. Cornthwaite; beautiful silver casket, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Kaylor, Ohio; silver butter knife, Dr. R. E. Tobey, Blue Mound; illustrated New Testament, Rev. C. F. Fick, dia. Will Smith; silver and glass covered preserve stand, Sallie and Amanda Crum.

The bride was attired in a lovely bronze green silk, the ornaments being natural flowers. Dr. Tobey is a practicing dentist at Macon and has a large patronage.

A FAREWELL BOARD.

The members of the board of supervisors were entertained at dinner to-day at the New Denning by Sheriff Foster, State's Attorney Johns, County Judge Green, Circuit Clerk McClellan and County Clerk Waggoner. The occasion was a very informal, but was a most enjoyable one, nevertheless. The members of the board were all present except one, and all apparently enjoyed the good things set before them by mine host Denning, unless it might have been the gentleman from Friends Creek, who plead indisposition. But even he managed to sample about everything on the bill of fare, in spite of the enfeebled condition of his health. The fact is a dinner at the Denning is well calculated to create an appetite in the stomach of the most dyspeptic invalid, and the excellent gentleman from the northeast is entirely excusable under the circumstances.

The Next Soldiers' Reunion.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the soldiers' reunion, at the Grand Pacific hotel, Chicago, Tuesday, it was decided to ask proposals from the mayor, citizens and Grand Army of the Republic poets of various cities in the state, setting forth terms and facilities for the next reunion, to occur in September. The bids should be sent to Gen. McNulta, Bloomington, July 6th, when the time and place will be decided upon. Deatur will probably be invited to bid for the prize, but the notice it must be confessed is brief.

The Diamond Field.

Says the Lincoln Journal of the 6th: "The return game of base ball between the Deatur 'Reds' and the Lincoln 'Reds' will be played on the grounds of the latter one week from to-day. Work on the grounds is progressing favorably and when the Deatur boys come over they will find beautiful grounds and receive treatment reciprocal of that shown the Lincoln boys in Deatur."

A VACATION HYMN, (35 cts.) by H. G. Thunders, is the first of a very fine series of music pieces sent us from the abundant stores of Oliver Ditson & Co., Boston. The name is seasonal, and one would think the author had considerable electricity in his nature. The accompanying songs are quite suggestive of the subject, as "Parting" (30 cts.) by Victor, attends all departures; "Mamma, is Everybody Dead?" (30 cts.) by George Cooper, is a natural exclamation on seeing the homes shut up; "Be Gentle to the New Laid Eggs" (30 cts.) by Howard Paul, is a very proper caution for the country, and "Gypsy John" (30 cts.) by Gray, may be met in any woodland ramble; "An Old, Old Song" (30 cts.) by Mollie, suggests that we have seen there before; "Whisper by Stream" (30 cts.) and "Merry Dance" (40 cts.) by Laidner, suggest rides and picnics; "Will You Lend Me Your Heart?" (30 cts.) by Bohm, comes naturally in pleasant parties, where the successful man may very likely win "The Flower of the Flock" (march for guitar, 30 cts.).

PERSONAL MENTION.

State Senator Moffett was among the visitors to Deatur last evening.

Mrs. Jesse James and her two children will visit Deatur next Monday.

Rev. E. T. Taylor, of Piagah, Mo., is in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Mowry, of Forsyth, departed last night for an eastern trip.

Captain Rowell and Senator Fifer departed for Bloomington on the early train this morning.

Mrs. D. Bishop departed to-day for Monticello, where she will visit among old friends.

"Pat Rooney" (Devin Kearney), of Chicago, is in the city to-day, but he don't have to change his easy this trip.

Mrs. Rockwell and children, of Taylorville, are guests of Rev. D. P. Bunn and family.

Peter Brueck is one of the most active farmers and stock breeders in Deatur township. He is up early and late.

Mrs. W. B. McCallum, of Valparaiso, Ind., only sister of Rev. W. H. Mungrove, with her sons Steve and Fred, are spending a few weeks in Deatur.

Manager Haines informs us that Frank Mayo will not give us "Davy Crockett" this season as was expected. Will come some other eve.

Judge Smith is rapidly recovering from his recent indisposition. The healthy climate of Deatur will soon bring him around in tip-top shape.

Lincoln Journal: Charley Hammell is pretty well satisfied with his position in Deatur. He is weight clerk for the Deatur Coal Company.

Mrs. R. J. Oglesby, of Lincoln, was the guest of J. J. Pedecord and family for a few hours yesterday. She returned home in the evening.

Lizzie Barton will not get to see the inside of the Joliet pen this trip. She rejoices that she will only receive a jail sentence.

Smith Crowder, having resigned his position at Hubbard & Swearingen's store, will leave for Kansas about the 20th of June, and thence will go to Pueblo, Colorado.

Andrew Sailer and wife, nee Annie Holl, departed Tuesday evening for a tour through Europe. During their absence they will visit relatives of Mr. Sailer in Germany.

Miss Nellie Dorn, of Charleston, Ill., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. E. W. Shively, in this city for several weeks, departed for her home this morning. She was accompanied by Mrs. Shively.

Dr. J. D. Wheeler, L. H. Clark and W. J. Weyl, of Deatur; Dr. R. W. Johnson, of Assumption; Dr. T. Zor, of Macon; and Dr. House and Hyde, of Clinton, were in Bloomington yesterday attending the State meeting of the Eclectic Medical Society.

The invitations are out announcing the marriage of Mr. George Harrington, principal of the public schools at Carlinville, and Miss Lucy Irwin, which will take place at the residence of the bride's mother in this city on next Thursday afternoon, June 15.

C. W. Boardman, of the H. & St. Joe R'y, and Thomas Evans, the land excursion agent, arrived home last night from the west. They left for the west on Tuesday with 37 passengers via Quincy, over the Hannibal & St. Joe for points in Arkansas and Kansas.

Hugh W. Hill, Esq., accompanied by his daughter, Miss Gussie Hill, departed last night for the South. They will visit Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Chattanooga, Tenn., and Knoxville, Tenn., in the order named. Miss Hill will remain at Knoxville among friends to receive the benefit of the fresh, bracing air of the Cumberland mountains, and Mr. Hill will go further south. He will visit Oxford, Miss., and will call upon his double cousin, Hon. Robert A. Hill, Judge of the U. S. Court, and thence will go to Carrollton, Miss., to visit his brother, Dr. S. F. Hill, who was in Deatur two years ago. Mr. Hill will also visit the place of his birth, Statesville, North Carolina, for the first time in 47 years. At Statesville he will view the places where he used to throw stones and eat fruit, and will meet at least two persons who used to go to school with him. On his return, after an absence of about a month, Mr. Hill will call at Knoxville, and if agreeable, he will bring his daughter home with him.
